BULGARIANS WERE BEATEN BACK

Serbian Have Made Another Gallant Stand

TEUTONS FIND ROAD TO CONSTANTINOPLE LONG, ROCKY AND HARD TO TRAVEL

(Associated Press)

London, Oct. 28.—Unofficial reports from Greek sources represent the situation in Southern Serbia as more favorable for the Allies. An unconfirmed Athens dispatch says the Bulgarians have evacuated Uskup. Saloniki advices tell of a fierce battle along the Velez-Komanosovo front, with the Bulgarians retreating. Hopes have revived that the Serbians will be able to re-form their line on the Monister front. The Germans having effected a junction with the Bulgarians, the Allies may turn their attention to cutting Constantinople communications, instead of endeavoring to relieve Constantinople. Riga and Dvinsk retain the chief German objectives on the eastern front. Comparative quiet prevails on the other fronts.

NEARING NISH

London, Oct. 28.—Bulgarian troops with Nish as their objective, have occupied the strongly fortified town of Pirot, says a Saloniki dispatch to the Daily Mail. Pirot is thirty-five miles east of Nish and was the scene of an important battle in the Serbo-Bulgarian war of 1885.

GAINING GROUND

Berlin, Oct. 8.—The war office announces that further ground has been gained in Serbia. Gallwitz's army has taken 2,033 Serbian prisoners since Oct. 23rd. The Bulgarians have captured Zajecar and Kniajevate, having crossed the Timok river over a large front.

RUSSIANS SHELLED VARNA

Rome, Oct. 28.—A Bucharest dispatch to the Steffani News Agency says a Russian fleet bombarded Varna, Bulgaria, yesterday and did great damage.

TEXAS WANTS TROOPS

BORDER AGAIN THREATENED BY GREASER BANDITS

(Associated Press)

Washington, Oct. 28.—Governor Ferguson of Texas, has telegraphed President Wilson, asking that more troops be sent to Brownsville. Border raids threaten to be more menacing.

REQUEST NOT RECEIVED

Gov. Ferguson wired President Wilson urging him to use his influence with Carranza to prevent further border raids. It was reported here that Gov. Ferguson had asked for more troops, but no request has been received.

COLORADO GIRL RUN OVER

A 12-year-old colored girl, whose name we did not learn, was run over while on her way to school at 8 o'clock this morning at the corner of North Magnolia and Henry streets. The man who ran over her took her home in his car, as she lived very close by, and promised to send a physician to attend to her injuries, but if this was done it was after considerable delay.

On Saturday and Monday, 18 pounds of sugar for $1, with one dollar's worth of other groceries, for cash. Smith Grocery Co. Phone 434. tf

CHANGES IN THE FRENCH CABINET

VIVIANI WILL PROBABLY RETIRE IN FAVOR OF BRIAND

(Associated Press)

Paris, Oct. 28.—It is understood that Premier Viviani of France will retire in favor of Premier Briand, who will become premier and minister of foreign affairs. Premier Viviani will hold the post of minister of justice in the reorganized cabinet. It is believed the reorganized cabinet will be ready to appear before parliament this afternoon. There are several other less important changes.

REPORT CONFIRMED

Early this afternoon the Viviani cabinet resigned. Aristides Briand has asked for a new cabinet.

ARGYLL AGROUND

BRITISH MAY HAVE LOST ANOTHER BIG WAR BOAT

(Associated Press)

London, Oct. 28.—The British cruiser Argyll, which has been reported aground off the coast of Scotland, may be a total loss. All hands have been taken off.

A HUMDINGER

That picture show at the Temple, "Midnight at Maxim's," was the cause of many old married men staying down town late last night. They passed the word to each other. A few of them saw the first run of the reels, and went and told all the others.

Quite a number of the boys and some of the girls saw it, too. The Temple has a pretty good program tonight, also.

UNDERSTANDS HIS COUNTRY'S INTERESTS

Bulgarian General Anxious to Lead Russian Army to Battle

Milan, Italy, Oct. 28.—The Corriere Della Sera says that it learns from an authentic diplomatic source that General Radke Dimitrioff, former commander-in-chief of the Bulgarian army, will lead the Russian forces against Bulgaria. He is now at Bucharest, trying to induce the Rumanian government to permit the passage of Russian troops through Rumania. Gen. Dimitrioff was Bulgaria's minister to Russia when the war started, but immediately resigned to offer Russia his services.

OCALA'S BRIGHTEST EVENING

Public Square Was Thronged With Happy People

CITIZENS AND THEIR FAMILIES TURNED OUT IN FULL FORCE TO MAKE MERRY WITH THE OLD SOLDIERS

Never in the history of Ocala has there been such a happy crowd on the public square as on Wednesday evening, and never has that part or any other part of the town looked so bright and pretty.

Superintendent Caldwell of the city electric plant had carried out his contract, and the square was radiant with lights most advantageously and tastefully distributed. The entire space was radiant without being glaring, and the public illumination was aided by most of the business men, who lit up the fronts of their stores. The visitors were out in force, and a large proportion of our own people were also present.

Next to the illumination, the chief cause of happiness was the band. This, under the direction of Prof. Chattaway of Palatka, rendered the finest music for over two hours, and receiving encores again and again. The program was as follows:

Dixie.
Gipsyland march.
My Tom, Tom march.
March.
Southern Star overture.
Sprinkle Me with Kisses two-step.
Spirit of Independence march and two-step.

Virginia Reel, Star collection.
Moonlight on the Nile waltz.
Everybody Rag ragtime.
King Rose overture.
King Over All march.
Master at Arms march.
Hello Frisco two-step.
Finale, Dixie.

Immediately after the music began, the space in front of the Ocala House was roped off, and soon several merry couples were whirling in the dance. As it was an innovation, not as many danced as wanted to, but all had a good time, either dancing or watching the dancers.

Some of the veterans went out and shook a foot as lively as anybody, and one old soldier received great applause for the rendition of one of the double shuffles with which he and his comrades whiled away many weary hours around the campfires over half a century ago.

Following are the bandboys who so efficiently aided in the pleasure of the evening:

Professor Chattaway, director; Messrs. Leon Fishel, Joe Needham, A. Melin, M. A. TenEyck, Ben Borden, W. W. Condon, Welch Dewey, A. E. Gerig, George Nash, Frank Mathews, Fred Weihe, F. E. McClane, Eric Collier, Travis Collier, Hugo McIntosh, David Melin and H. W. Tucker.

AUTO AND RIVER TRIP

All the veterans who wanted to go were taken on a trip to Silver Springs and down Silver river Wednesday afternoon. The call of the committees for autos was fully responded to. There were cars and to spare. At the springs, the Carmichaels took charge of the water end of the route, and on their swift and comfortable yachts, the City of Ocala and the Silver Springs, the old soldiers were shown the attractions of the most beautiful of rivers.

THURSDAY MORNING'S PROCEEDINGS

The veterans met at the Temple Theater at nine o'clock, with Gen. Jon. A. Rosborough presiding.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Bishop Weed.

The roll of camps was called, from the first brigade thirty-seven delegates responded, from the second twenty-three, and from the third twenty-four.

The adjutants of the brigades made their annual reports, showing the various camps in good condition, considering the thinning of the ranks. The third brigade reported one camp, Key West, abandoned, as there were only two members left of the one time good sized camp.

The Sons of Veterans sent greetings to the convention and invited the veterans to attend their meetings at the court house whenever opportunity offered.

On motion it was ordered that General Cox compile a report of deaths occurring in the ranks since last reunion. He asked that all camps report to him at once so that a complete record may be presented at the meeting this afternoon.

A committee, consisting of Messrs. Ayer, Rawls and Duncan, was appointed to receive and report upon the monument fund at this afternoon's session.

On motion, it was decided to devote one hour from twelve to one o'clock tomorrow for devotional or memorial services.

Convention then adjourned until two o'clock this afternoon.

NEXT MEETING PROBABLY IN TAMPA

It is probable that the next meeting of the veterans will be in Tampa. That city has asked for it, and so far has no opposition. The matter will be decided at tomorrow morning's session.

SONS OF VETERANS

The Sons of Veterans held a business meeting at the courthouse this morning, and attended to the business of their organization. We will have the official report tomorrow.

GRAND BALL TONIGHT

The beauty and chivalry of the city will greet the veterans and Sons of Veterans at the Woman's Club rooms tonight.

PARADE TOMORROW

At 11 o'clock tomorrow will take place the annual parade of the old soldiers, accompanied by the Sons of Veterans. The parade will form in front of the Ocala House, and will probably march to the high school and return, going by the primary school. There will be plenty of cars for all who do not feel like walking. It is reported that the Ocala Rifles will escort the procession.

And tomorrow afternoon the parting handclaps will be given and the old soldiers will leave for their homes.

Judge A. O. Wright, of Jacksonville is in the city. The judge is the official head of what is left of the Confederate navy, he having served in that small but active element during the war. Mr. Wright was one of the best municipal judges Jacksonville ever had; also, he is a man of high standing in the literary circles of Florida.

Mr. Frank Lyons, many years ago a prominent citizen of Dunnellen, is in the city attending the reunion and visiting his old friend, Mr. G. A. Carmichael. Mr. Lyons formerly lived in Ocala, moved to Dunnellen, where he remained for several years, and from there went to Tampa where he now resides. Time has dealt kindly with him and he looks almost as young as he did twenty years ago.

General Harriss yesterday was proudly carrying the beautiful state flag of the Florida Sons of Veterans.

Rev. T. J. Dobbs, a Baptist minister of Jacksonville, formerly well known in Marion county, is attending the reunion.

Mr. C. C. Stephens, the Berlin veteran, accompanied by his grandson, Mr. Ernest Rawls, of the Seaboard, is attending the reunion.

ANOTHER SLAUGHTER OF INNOCENTS

Massachusetts Had a School Horror this Morning

AT LEAST TWENTY LOST THEIR LIVES AND MANY OTHERS WERE BADLY INJURED

(Associated Press)

Peabody, Mass., Oct. 28.—In a fire which started in the St. Johns parochial school here shortly after it opened today, possibly fifty children lost their lives and many others were fatally hurt. There were over six hundred students at their desks when an explosion occurred, apparently in the boiler room of the school building. The flames spread rapidly and before the children could get out of the rooms the doors were choked with the terrorized pupils. Many were trampled under foot by their fellow scholars and others were overcome by smoke. Many jumped from the windows of the burning building.

LATER REPORT LESSENS THE NUMBER OF DEAD

The death list will probably not be over thirty, twenty bodies having been recovered at 11 o'clock. The children became jammed in the vestibule, twelve bodies being found there. The students ranged from seven to thirteen years of age. The mother superior, Sister Aldegno, smelled smoke and gave the alarm. The sisters said the children marched orderly until the leaders made the mistake of rushing into the vestibule instead of out thru the rear doors, as ordered. Some child uttered a cry of fear which was taken up by others, and the sisters were unable to stop the panic which seized the children. The vestibule was jammed with the living and dead. Firemen were unable to force an entrance and are in doubt as to the exact origin of the fire. All sixteen of the teachers escaped.

ADDITIONAL SLAUGHTER

Peabody, Mass., Oct. 28, 3:16 p. m.—As the result of the fire and panic in the St. John's school this morning, twenty pupils are dead and scores are injured. The town is paralyzed with horror. Scarcely a home in it that has not lost a relative or friend.
